

HCV2018 - ICORN PUBLIC OUTREACH SESSION

Celebrate the Successes - Address the Challenges – C it off 2030!

Tuesday, 9th October 2018
Hall 6, Royal Dublin Society

PROGRAMME:

4.30pm: Registration and Refreshments

5.00pm: Celebrate the Successes

Welcome: Prof. Cliona O'Farrelly, Trinity College Dublin

Chair: Prof. Colm Bergin,

St. James's Hospital/Trinity College Dublin and ICORN Chair

- The Anti-D Story – Dr Liz Kenny-Walsh, Cork University Hospital
 - The Irish Haemophilia Story (IHS)
 - ICORN - Irish Research Network and Registry Outcomes, Successes of last 5 years – Dr. Diarmaid Houlihan, St. Vincent's University Hospital, ICORN Research Chair
 - National Strategy – Michele Tait, Programme Manager, National Hepatitis C Treatment Programme
- Panel Discussion

5.45pm: Address the Challenges – C it off 2030!

Chair: Nicola Perry, Community Response

- Micro-Elimination – Dr. Steve Stewart, Mater Misericordiae University Hospital
- Vaccines are better Medicine – Prof. Ellie Barnes, University of Oxford
- Social Inclusion Health Network and Marginalised Cohorts – Dr. Cliona Ni Cheallaigh, St. James's Hospital/Trinity College Dublin
- Patient Story

6.30pm: Open Discussion chaired by Prof. Cliona O'Farrelly

Attendance is by invitation only, due to venue constraints.
If you wish to attend, please contact Doloresbarry@hcv2018.com